Clear, Clean, & Current

Water's developmental task involves learning to run clear, clean, emotional current.

CLEAR

As a priestess learn to clear old emotional patterns and programs

So you can become "current & clean"

Water teaches you to respond to situations and life instead of react.

Sometimes a reaction can be unconscious because the energy was it was simply the family emotional pattern.

Part of Water's developmental task is learning to identify and clear an "emotional charge."

Charges are like debris in your emotional water.

Your task is to learn to follow the thread of consciousness inside until you find what it is and clear it out of yourself so there is no more charge.

Cellular Shift

Clearing charges frequently takes time, as often there are layers.

Your job is to just begin noticing where you have one and begin developing the ability to clear them.

4 FACES OF FEAR

How this impacts your creation energy.

Ego States

Child Ego State

If our child consciousness or ego state is meeting, for example, we may demand that our needs get met right now by those around us. We may feel small and weak or guilty. We may be unwilling to take responsibility for the situation in which we find ourselves and become withdrawn, detached, distant, or overly resistant about our needs.

Adolescent Ego State

If the part of us that contains our adolescent energy meets, we may avoid concerns and feel rebellious. From this level of consciousness, we frequently act in ways that do not support our larger life vision. We may refuse to be told what to do, sometimes we may clearly say we won't do it in respect, or we may just passively avoid doing it. We may be unwilling to express how we truly feel about a situation and think others have control over our life.

Critical Parent Ego State

We sometimes approach life from our inner parent. This part of us can sound as though we know what is best for others, more than they know for themselves. From this operation, we can be inflexible, hypocritical, disapproving, righteous, and judgmental with ourselves and with others. When encountering one of our inner parent we also can try to defend, attack, and rescue those around us, then becoming the overly responsible hero parent.

Adult Ego State

From our adult state, we are able to consider our options and respond effectively to a situation. We are connected to our own experience of wisdom - our feelings, inner guidance, and intuition. We are able to take healthy responsibility, neither too much or too little. Instead of being part of unconscious emotional states from the past, we make choices about situations from the present moment.

Priest/ess Ability to Hold Space and Create Safe Emotional Space

The power of love exists in the element of Water.

The clearer your emotions, the more space there is for love to move in your life.

In the emotional realm you learn to love yourself fully, to nurture, to heal the inner child, and to create a space for clarity, flow, and love to move freely in your relationships with others.

Increasing self-love begins to reflect in your outer world. Find ways to appreciate and fill yourself with love.

It is helpful to make conscious choices to love yourself no matter how else you are feeling.
