Fire & Your Money

Take time in nature to feel, to touch, and to connect with the element of Fire. To do so, use the sun, a candle, or build a contained fire. Allow your consciousness to connect to the Fire. Ask Fire to share its essence connection to money with you. Then just wait and listen. When you receive a message, write down the message without filtering it. Thank Fire for all you receive.

Notes on Reflection with Fire:

What actions are you taking to help your income, savings, and investments grow?

26

Are your financial actions in alignment with your deepest desires for your life?

What are your money life desires urging you to do at this time?

Do you have any old energy around your prosperity that needs to be transformed with fire?

27

Are you rhythmically energizing your financial and wealth goals?

Do you have excitement, motivation, and passion to fuel your financial plans and propel growth?
