Prayer:

"I call upon the Divine Creator/Creatrix to protect my womb and the wombs of our Daughters. Heal our wombs from all wickedness. From this day forward may we speak up for and guard our wombs with all our inner power as we call on the Over-soul of the Sacred Womb. My womb speaks and commands peace upon the Earth and throughout the Universe. Through the healing of my womb all wars shall cease. Earth Mother, because of the peace within my womb, tidal waves, hurricanes, tornadoes, volcanic eruptions floods, and earthquakes shall cease. According to my womb there will be peace, for it is my womb that is the spiritual coordinator of all activity on this sacred earth. May all wombs be blessed."
