Insights

Sophia

- Goddess of Wisdom
- Sophia (σοφία, Greek for "wisdom")
- Known as the keeper of the knowledge
- Gnostics revered her

- Taught that the path to liberation lay in the attainment of Gnosis, the knowledge of sacred truths of the spiritual universe. They said that each human being is the inheritor of a divine spark, a bit of fire given by the hand of God. Most people do not realize this fire within and live in ignorance of their true nature, but Jesus' life had as its mission the purpose of reminding humanity of its true nature. He demonstrated, through his life and death, the way to freedom and taught the secrets of the ascent.

Sophia

- Known as the female counterpart to God
- Gnostics believe that Sophia is analogous to the human spirit and resides in each human as the divine spark.

Sophia

- Known as the Mother of All or simply as Wisdom
- According to Gnostic creation myths Sophia was born of Silence. According to Gnostic creation myths. She gave birth to both Male and Female who together created all the elements of our material world.
